#GivingTuesday is November 27th

Dear Friends,

Giving Tuesday is November 27th and is known as an important global day of giving. Now, more than ever, the pets whose owners are homeless need your gift.

With the recent California wildfires, more people and pets are displaced and Feeding Pets of the Homeless is averaging 43 emergency veterinary care cases per week. We have exceeded our 2018 budget of $250,000. More and more people are learning about our services and the homeless situation is not improving.

This Giving Tuesday @GlobalGiving is dividing $150,000 in matching funds among its nonprofit community members. How much we receive depends on how much you give! Please help us provide much needed emergency veterinary care to pets whose owner is homeless.

You might push through crowds on Black Friday, or surf the web for Cyber Monday...but you can make a big difference in the lives of pets of the homeless when you give back on #GivingTuesday on November 27th.

Ways you can help:

- Share your support for Pets of the Homeless with your family and friends and ask them to match your donation. Share our social media posts from Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter

You make our mission possible. With your gift, YOU are helping provide veterinary care to a pet whose owner is homeless and get the necessary treatment he deserves! Thank you!
